

ISSUES FORUM

The Forum creates a structured, lively setting in which panel members debate divergent perspectives on a single topic. They present, develop and critique these points; then audience members may enter into the debate. We invite you to join us in discussing this year's topic.

In Sickness and in Health: The Health Care Controversy

Position 1: Egalitarian: Health care should be public to ensure coverage for all Americans.

Position 2: Ethical: Public health care puts an undue tax burden on the American People

Position 3: Qualitative: Health care should be privatized to ensure quality care.

Position 4: Economic: Private health care puts an undue burden on businesses.

MODERATOR:

Prof. Barbara Anderson, Los Angeles Pierce College

After the Forum, please move directly to the Social Sciences Plaza, where you will meet with a UCI campus ambassador who will escort you to lunch at the Pippin Dining Hall in Middle Earth.
